In Memoriam

Ruth Carteaux

A tragic accident September 12, 1951, took the life of Mrs. Ruth Carteaux just as she was beginning her third year as first grade teacher at Huntertown.

Mrs. Carteaux is remembered by her pupils as a most sympathetic, thoughtful teacher, who was always ready to listen and understand their problems. To her, each child was an individual and his troubles were hers.

To her fellow-teachers she was thoughtful, kind, and always pleasant. Her ready smile and willingness to do more than her share endeared her to all those with whom she worked. Her loss has been deeply felt.

The sympathy of the entire student body and faculty of Eel River-Perry Township school is extended to her husband, Joseph Carteaux, for whom she felt deepest affection and respect.

Best wishes, P.s.t.!
Lucinda Enley

Class of '52

In 1940 seventeen adventure seekers, after crossing the sea of infancy, entered the door of the lighthouse of learning and looked forward to the twelve steps which rose ahead of them. These seventeen adventurous boys and girls who took the first step together were Arnold Andrews, Leah Byerley, Paul Dice, Bonnie Forrest, Dick Garman, Alton Gross, Elaine Gross, Roger Jones, Georgia May, Jerry Miller, Pauline Peters, JoAnn Phillips, Virginia Shank, Roger Smith, Donald Surfus, Joan Wetzel, and David Witham.

This same group continued climbing; and when they reached the fourth step, Nelson Arnold and Robert Ritter joined them. On the fifth and sixth steps, they met Jerry Buchanan, Harry Johnson, Joan Leazier, Perry Leazier, Ralph Myers, Carol Rondot, Joyce Roth, and Robert Spangler. While going up the first six steps, these adventurers absorbed many of the fundamentals of reading, writing, and arithmetic; and as they advanced to the seventh and eighth steps, their number was increased by the addition of Jack Kelham, Marilyn Nicodemus, and Holland Thompson. They began to take interest in outside activities such as sports and music. This group participated in a junior chorus, the first to be organized in the Huntertown lighthouse. On the eighth step the energetic boys and girls received their diplomas which represented their past efforts.

The group found that the higher the steps were the more complicated the climb became. On the ninth step they met Roy Chapman, Mary Demske, Kathryn DeWeese, Dwight DeWitt, Eugene Dillman, Lois Guysinger, Joyce Harrod, Evelyn Householder, Franklin Huber, Marjorie Knappenberger, Laura Konger, Dolly Lavachek, Keith Leiter, James Lutter, Robert Mason, Lois Minton, William Rybolt, Cecil Shank, James Southern, Barbara Stirlen, Raymond Tester, and Dora Whan. These newcomers had climbed their first eight steps in a different lighthouse. Mr. Fryback and Mrs. Hostetler led the class while they continually explored new interests. On this, the ninth step, they elected Arnold Andrews as president, Virginia Shank as vice-president, Joyce Harrod as secretary, and Franklin Huber as treasurer. These officers represented the class in various matters. The monotony of the climb was broken by two class parties held in the Huntertown cafeteria.

Byram Dickes caught up with the bunch on the tenth step; on this step the group was guided by Mrs. Palicki and Mr. Appleman with the assistance of Raymond Tester, president; Dora Whan, vice-president; Bonnie Forrest, secretary; and Virginia Shank, treasurer. During this year the pack gained fame by winning the class basketball tournament.

Connie Herendeen and Kathryn Leffers were attached to the throng during the eleventh year. Miss Enley, Mrs. Whonsettler, and Mr. Sible directed the group. The officers were David Witham, president; Byram Dickes, vice-president; Joyce Harrod, secretary; and Dora Whan, treasurer. In the fall the class presented the play, "Date-Bait", which proved to be a great success. The boys added to the class's already impressive athletic record by winning the class tournament for the second consecutive year. They also contributed much to the high school basketball team which won the Allen County Tournament. This was the first time since 1926 that Huntertown has been able to accomplish this feat. "Mystic May" was the theme of the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Upon reaching the last step the class of '52 took on Bruce Miniatt and elected as its officers Byram Dickes, Lois Guysinger, Laura Konger, and Roger Jones. This year the adventurers published the Citadel and the Black and Gold Flash. They chose a red carnation for their class flower and dove grey and white as their class colors. This year the class presented a variety show in place of the traditional senior class play. Mrs. Smith and Mr. Prible escorted the group to the top of the lighthouse. Now, standing on the top step of the lighthouse, the senior class of '52 looks out onto the sea of life; and they suddenly realize that their class motto holds true: they are "Not finished; Just begun."

Class Prophecy

In the year of 3080 we find ourselves very busy trying to look up the class of "52" for the annual class reunion.

Our first stop is the laboratory of the world-famous scientist, Dwight DeWitt. The genius is now working on a space-ship which will run on kool-ade instead of gasoline.

We decide to look around at some of the other inventions, but our attention is attracted to the far corner of the lab where we find Joyce Harrod, Carol Rondot, and Georgia May crying their eyes out because Dwight doesn't have time to take them out.

Leaving the girls and their misery behind we travel on to Pauline Peters' Poodle Shop. Here we see the latest in dogs and hair cuts. To our surprise we notice Laura Konger and Kathy Leffers modeling the new poodle cuts.

While walking along the street we see a lady in front of us slip on a banana peeling and fall on her face. We rush up to aid her and find that it is none other than Bonnie Forrest. In a moment policeman, Pete Dillman comes to the rescue and takes Bonnie to the hospital to see if anything has been broken.

Arriving at the hospital, we see Doctors Jerry Miller and Fink Huber come running with the stretcher. Behind them is Jenny Shank and Joan Wetzel, the best nurses in the world. We all take the patient to the X-ray room where Dora Whan and Archie Andrews (now married) are on hand to do the X-raying. They can't find a thing wrong so they dismiss the patient and tell the rest of us politely to "GET OUT".

A look at our watch tells us it is time for dinner and we decide to eat at "Leazier's Lunch", owned and operated by Joann and Jim Leazier. Our dinner was cooked by chef Don Surfus and served by Lois Guysinger, our old school chums.

Once again we are on our merry way. Our next stop will be the school. We were surprised to find so many of our old schoolmates have become teachers. As we enter the school we see Sonny Arnold, the principal, getting ready to paddle some little children who were running in the hall. Down the hall we see Mary Demske, who is now teaching the first grade. In the gym we see Robert Ritter, coach, and Jerry Buchanan, the assistant coach, trying to teach all the boys how to dribble a ball. Other teachers we see are Joyce Roth, Evelyn Houshoulder, Marilyn Nicodemus, and Kathryn DeWeese.

After visiting the school we agreed to take in a movie. We decided to see "A Smile That Convinces", starring Margie Knappenberger with Roy Chapman as her leading man.

When we get out of the show we all feel a little lazy and decide to get some exercise, so we go to the big Huntertown Fair. Here we find all the people waiting anxiously to see who the new queen will be: Joan Minton, Leah Byerley, Elaine Gross, or Joan Phillips.

While walking around the midway, we see Jack Kelham at the basketball throw. He has been there for an hour and hasn't made a basket yet. "I'm just not what I used to be", he told us as he walked away sadly.

"Come and see the beautiful ladies!" we hear someone calling. We have always liked this kind of show, so we start for the tent. What a shock! The Ladies are Gentlemen! Out on the stage comes Dave Witham, Ray Tester, Paul Dice, Bob Spangler, Jim Leazier, and Dick Garman. This is the best kick line we have ever seen. Betty Grable had nothing on these "ladies."

It begins to get dark and we begin to get hungry. We see the sign "BIG JUMBO HOT DOGS" and make a mad rush for the stand. Here we find none other than Dolly Lavachek, Connie Herendeen, and Barbara Stirlen fixing hot dogs for a line a mile long.

After having six hot dogs apiece, we leave the fair to leech for the rest of our class.

We learn that Bruce Miniatt, Cecil Shank, Richard Johnson, and Ralph Meyers have become great stars on the Zollner Piston Basketball Team. And who should be the coach but Keith Leiter, with Bill Rybolt as the assistant coach.

Our class president, Byram Dickes, has become the world's greatest wrestler.

Jim Southern and Roger Smith are running for Congress.

Holland Thompson, Roger Jones, and Alton Gross are chefs in the famous "Raymar" in Huntertown.

We see the skies begin to darken and it looks like a storm is coming on. We run into the nearest building to get out of the rain, the thunder roars—and wakes us up from the most fantastic dream we have ever had.

Last Will and Testament

ARTICLE I

We, the worthy Seniors, in this the year of our Lord, 1952, being of various and sundry degrees of intelligence, do solemnly make, declare and publish this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by us.

I, Connie Herendeen being of sound mind and body, will my height and good English and ladylike ways to Betty Cummins.

I, Evelyn Houshoulder, being of sound mind and memory, will my ability to get along with Mrs. Drummond to Jack Walcott.

I, Fink Huber, being of sound mind and body, (I think) will and bequeath my height, speed and ability to play varsity basketball to Ronnie Farrell.

I, Richard Johnson, being of sound mind and body, (I think) will and bequeath my ability to skate to anyone who has a few pillows.

I, Roger Jones, will my ability not to chew soap to Richard Gordon, (he needs it.)

I, Jack Kelham, will and bequeath my ability to play basketball to Gary Muncy.

I, Marjorie Knappenberger, hereby will and bequeath part of my short name to Jane Tom, who is burdened with a long one.

I, Laura Konger, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to keep out of trouble to my brother, Bernard.

I, Joann Lcazier, will my ability to be one of the tallest girl in my class to Shirley Heffelfinger.

I, Jim Leazier, will my ability to hunt four legged deer and run the mile to Berny Konger.

I, Dolly Lavachek, will and bequeath my ability to keep my temper to another redhead, Ferol Green.

I, Catherine Leffers, being of sound mind and body will to Neil Kreger the ability to be good in study halls.

I, Keith Leiter, being of sound mind, will my curly hair to anyone who wants it and some that need it.

I, Arnold Andrews, having small feet and a hollow head, will and bequeath my ability to drive like mad man to Noel Fitch, (as if he needed it).

I, Nelson Arnold, will my ability to stay out of trouble and not chew soap in Mr. Guinther's class to Eldon Bear.

I, Leah Joye Byerley, will my Algebra book to any unsuspecting freshman.

I, Jerry Buchanan, will and bequeath my cigarette lighter to anyone who wishes to become a firebug.

I, Roy Chapman, being of sound mind and body will and bequeath my super natural abilities to draw a portrait to any advanced art student. (You'll need it.)

I, Mary Demske, will my dark hair and my bashfulness to anyone who wants them.

I, Kathryn DeWeese, being of sound mind and memory, will my devotion for Kendallville to Peggy Deetz.

I, Dwight DeWitt, being of sound mind (?) and body, do will and bequeath my nickname "Fuzzy" to anyone who is dumb enough to want it.

I, Paul Dice, will my ability to skip school to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Byram Dickes, being all here, will my ability to grow fat to Bud Shank.

I, Pete Dillman, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to get along with Mary Jane to Don Bair.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Bonnie Forrest, will my ability to get passes for no reason at all to Beverly Gump, who always stays in her classes.

I, "Dick" Richard Blane Garman, will my gift of gab to Larry Martin.

I, Alton Gross, will my "State Farmer Books" to Richard Malcolm.

I, Elaine Gross, will and bequeath my ability of always getting to class on time to the oncoming seniors.

I, Lois Guysinger, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to annoy Mrs. Drummond in Chorus to the future accompanist. Also I will what is left of my typing eraser to Peggy Deetz.

I, Jim Lutter, being of sound mind and body, (I think) will my ability to get along with Mr. Appleman to Bernard Konger who needs it and had better use it.

I, Robert Mason, being of sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath my ability to hit the waste paper basket in Mr. Appleman's study hall 2 out of 3 times to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Georgia May, do hereby refuse to will and bequeath anything to anyone because I need everything I have.

I, Jerry "Luke" Miller, being of sound mind and feet, will my ability as cigar smoker, ringleader, most experienced bench rider, woman killer, trophy breaker and first class hoodlum, plus all of the glorious parties over in Bud May's cellar to Dick Sordelet.

I, Bruce Miniat, will my enormous height to Ronnie Farrell.

I, Joan Minton, though of unstable and depreciating mind and body, having taken time out from skipping classes to write this, do hereby will and bequeath the nerve to talk in the library when Miss Enley is in study hall to anyone who has the courage to do it.

I, Ralph Myers, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to throw crasers in speech class, after learning how in Ag., to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Marilyn Nicodemus, will and bequeath my ability to get out of third period study hall every day, to any lucky junior.

I, Pauline Peters, will my great love for school to my sister, Naney.

I, JoAnn Phillips do hereby will and bequeath my ability to have two one-hour study halls in a row in the afternoon and sit and do nothing to my brother, Bob.

I, Robert Ritter, being of sound mind and body, I hope, hereby will and bequeath my ability to go to sleep in class to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Carol Rondot, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to talk about anything, anytime, anywhere to Peggy May, who should be able to keep up with my standards.

I, Joyce Roth, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to be good in study hall to Gary Muncy. (He needs it.)

I, Bill Rybolt, will my sympathy to anyone who takes first year art under Mrs. Burns.

I, Cecil Shank, will my ability to sleep in study hall to Richard Christlieb.

I, Jenny Shank, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go steady (with one man) for three years to Ann Gump.

I, Roger Smith, being of sound mind and body, (I think), will my height to Mouse Martin (he needs it).

I, Jim Southern, will my ability of keeping a job to Larry Timmis.

I, Bob Spangler, being of sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath my ability to be an honor student in speech to any first class hoodlum.

I, Barbara Stirlen, will my ability to get up at 7:00, catch the bus at 7:05, and be completely ready for school to Carol Hortsmeyer and Arletta Jordon.

I, Don Surfus, being of sound mind and body will and bequeath to Dick Hartung, my trombone ability.

(Concluded on Next Page)

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Raymond Tester, will my ability in playing basketball, if I have any, to George Springer, (not that he needs it).

I, Holland Thompson, will my geography book to any one slightly more ambitious than I.

I, Joan Wetzel, being somewhat of a prodigy, do hereby mournfully relinquish my secret formula for hair dye to any sucker who is dumb enough to take it.

I, Dora Whan, being of sound mind and body, will Grand Central Station (last period office) to Shirley Bianski.

I, David Witham, being of sound mind and body do hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble to my two loving brothers, "Unk" and Jack.

ARTICLE II

To Mr. Prible, we will our rosy red faces and our ability to flash a cheerful smile.

To Mrs. Smith, we will the ability to withstand the confusion of fire, gas, and water, while listening to a senior's 5-minute speech.

To Mr. Sible, we will our love for Government and our ability to conduct ourselves as young ladies and gentlemen.

To Miss Enley, we will our love for acting and our ability to return our books in perfect condition on time.

To Mr. Coonan, we will the respect and admiration of our class and our ability to eat candy (wrapped in cellophane) in study hall.

To Mrs. Whonsetler, we will our love for Geography and our ability to locate the Belgian Congo on the North American map.

To Mr. Appleman, we will our knack for breaking science equipment and the ability to keep a straight face.

To Mrs. Patterson, we will our love for speed tests and a whip to keep order. (When we are gone.)

To Mr. Fryback, we will our ability in single file down stairs and always have a good joke on the tip of our tongue.

To Mrs. Hostetler, we will a gross of carbon paper and a printing press to write passes and our ability to act like sensible seniors.

To Mr. Sloffer, we will our love for shorthand and our ability to play off key.

To Mrs. Drummond, we will our ability to sit quietly while the other section practices and still have a good time.

To Mr. Guinther, we will our ability to cheat in lunch line and our enormous appetite for soap.

To Mrs. Burns, we will our ability to make a portrait resemble someone.

To Mrs. Malcolm, we will our ability to slide into our seats as the second bell rings.

ARTICLE III

To the seventh grade, we will the ability to act like high school people and make it to class on time.

To the eighth grade, we will our very own eighth grade diplomas and the will to succeed.

To the freshmen, we will our beloved Biology books and our ability to get out of study hall.

To the sophomores, we will our ability to raise money for the Junior-Senior Banquet, and our love for 1,000 word themes.

To the juniors, we will the ability to conduct a good class meeting and always agree on the same thing.

ACTIVITIES

The Library

The library staff is composed of 14 members. These people are responsible for all the books checked in and out by the students, maintaining order in the library, and keeping the bookshelves and magazine rack in neat condition. Approximately 300 books were added to the already large amount of fiction, non-fiction, and reference books in the library. Our library has a circulation of nearly 4,270 books a month.

The library is a place for study and research and is open to the students during their study periods. It is a service and privilege to be used by all.

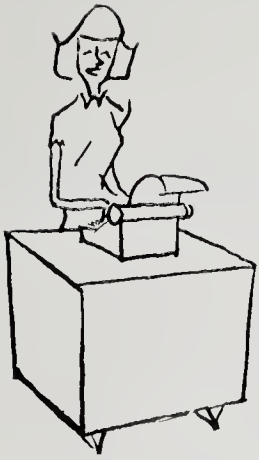

The library is under the supervision of Miss Enley, one of our faculty members. She has worked to make it an interesting and pleasant place.

Afternoon Librarians:
(L) Joyce Roth, Alice Boroff, Marie Smith, Marjorie Pepple, Peggy Deetz, Miss Enley.

Morning Librarians: (L) Miss Enley, Yvonne Buckles, Kathryn DeWeese, Carolyn Kirchner, Mary Anderson, Helen Arnold, Evelyn Housholder, Bonnie Schultz

CHARLES MAY

Champion

Charles May, a graduate of H. H. S. in 1951, won the State Shot-Put Championship of 1951 and brought honors to Hometown by throwing the twelve pound shot 51 feet, 6 1/2 inches at the state track contest in Indianapolis.

Charles has placed first in 35 contests, including championships in three county, one sectional, one regional, and one state tournament. He also won the Kokomo and Goshen Relays.

The farthest throw of his career came during the Allen County Tournament of 1951. At this time Charles, or Chuck, threw the shot 52 feet, 11 1/2 inches. This throw is an all time high in northeastern Indiana.

Chuck's state championship trophy has been added to the trophy case in the lower hall of H. H. S. This trophy is a reminder of a spectacular high school record and a tribute to an ace shot putter.

Dearest Patsy (Juicia),

Well Honey it sure has been batches of fun and I am not fooling.
 I had oooooooodles of fun the night of the prom and every other night we were doubling or just out together. I don't know what in the beans to say to such a swell gal but all I can say over & over is that its been ooooooles and batches and oooooles of fun. Love ya Batches, MaryAnn Cushing

Dear Pat,
 I'm just as bad as the rest of the kids. I don't know what to write. I don't say anything good. I don't
 And I think you're the best girl, the bestest looker, the bestest mean chaser,
 the bestest slick chick, and the dumbest flut,
 the bestest player I've ever seen. (just kidding)
 You're the bestest girl, you're over good,
 and the best you are ever going to have.

Dear Pat,

Pat, I've really enjoyed knowing you. You've really been a true friend, one of the truest. Thanks for listening to all my troubles and helping me out of the many scrapes I've gotten into.
 Don't forget your good old high school days. I wish you and Bruce the best of luck in the world and I know if you keep your nice personality and your friendly smile, you will end up on top. Love and Luck always
